Meco Poliziani was an influential leader and teacher in the Assumption School community, who greatly impacted the lives of many staff and students.

This race is our way of commemorating his many contributions during his years with the Halton Catholic District School Board. Meco was instrumental in developing programs that inspired students to volunteer and give to those less fortunate. Growing up in Hamilton, Meco was always aware of the needs of his community and so this fundraiser is not only a tribute to him personally, but it will also support the emergency programs of the Good Shepherd Ministries as well as a less fortunate youth from within the Assumption School community.

The Good Shepherd is a charity that provides assistance to thousands of people throughout the Hamilton Diocese. Their emergency programs provide food, clothing and shelter to those in immediate need. The Good Shepherd's rehabilitative programs restore one's sense of dignity and hope by offering life and social assistance, referral services and counseling (e.g.: Notre Dame House for transient youth and Martha House for abused women and children).

Catholic social teaching proclaims that a basic moral test is how the most vulnerable members in our society are faring. Our Catholic tradition instructs us to put the needs of the less fortunate and vulnerable before our own. We are our brothers' and sisters' keepers. We are all one human family.

Along with the Good Shepherd Ministries, the Assumption Family of Schools believe in encouraging basic rights, dignity and respect for all through word and action. We will provide, through participation and financial support, the opportunities for our students to achieve personal, educational and spiritual goals.
