Halton Catholic District School Board

Education Development Charges

LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY:

The Education Act provides that a district school board may pass by-laws for the imposition of education development charges against land in its area of jurisdiction undergoing residential or non-residential development if there is residential development in the area of jurisdiction of the district school board that would increase education land costs and the residential or non-residential development require one or more of the actions identified in section 257.54(2) of the Education Act;

Education development charges shall be imposed against all lands, buildings or structures undergoing residential and non-residential development if the development requires one or more of the following:

- a) the passing of a zoning by-law or of an amendment thereto under section 34 of the Planning Act;
- b) the approval of a minor variance under section 45 of the Planning Act;
- c) a conveyance of land to which a by-law passed under subsection 50(7) of the Planning Act applies;
- d) the approval of a plan of subdivision under section 51 of the Planning Act;
- e) a consent under section 53 of the Planning Act;
- f) the approval of a description under section 9 of the Condominium Act, 1998; or
- g) the issuing of a permit under the Building Code Act, 1992 in relation to a building or structure.

PURPOSE OF EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT CHARGES:

Education development charges are used to fund the acquisition of school sites and related costs to accommodate growth-related pupil needs.

EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT CHARGE BY-LAW PROCESS:

The Halton Catholic District School Board held Public Meetings on May 5, 2009 and subsequently the Board adopted an Education Development Charges (EDC) by-law on June 2, 2009. The effective implementation date of the Board's EDC by-law is June 8, 2009. The By-law has a term of five (5) years.

EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT CHARGE RATES:

The EDC By-law 2009 imposes residential and non-residential education development charges on development of all lands within the Region of Halton.

The applicable rates are as follows:

	Residential Development	Non-Residential Development
$ / new unit (as defined in the EDC By-law)	$821.00
$ / sq. ft. of gross floor area (as defined in the EDC By-law); $ / sq. m. of gross floor area		$ 0.23 / sq. ft. or $2.47 / sq. m.

The education development charge is in addition to charges levied by other Boards and government bodies.

BY-LAW EXEMPTIONS:

In addition to the statutory exemptions required under the Education Act and which are set out in the By-law, a number of non-statutory exemptions were approved by the Board. The exemptions are as follows:

- a) a public hospital receiving aid under the Public Hospitals Act;
- b) a publicly-funded university, community college or a college of applied arts and technology established under the Ontario Colleges of Applied Art and Technology Act, or a predecessor statute;
- c) a seminary of learning maintained for educational purposes that is exempt from taxation under the Assessment Act, the whole profits from which are devoted or applied to such purposes, i.e. a non-profit private school;
- d) a place of worship owned by a religious organization exempt from taxation under the Assessment Act that is used primarily as a place of public worship;
- e) a cemetery or burying ground exempt from taxation under the Assessment Act;
- f) non residential agricultural buildings or structures that are owned by and are used for the purposes of a bona fide farming operation.
- g) Go Transit

TIMING OF PAYMENT OF EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT CHARGES:

Education Development Charges are payable in full to the municipality in which the development takes place, on the date a building permit is issued.
