

Tuesday, December 3, 2019

RE: OSSTF Job Action WILL NOT IMPACT HCDSB Schools

---

You may have recently heard or seen in the news about the potential strike by the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation (OSSTF), which may take place on Wednesday, December 4, 2019.

Our schools and workplaces in the Halton Catholic District School Board (HCDSB) are NOT affected by this potential job action, as none of our HCDSB employee groups are represented by OSSTF.

Please note that should this job action proceed for OSSTF, all HCDSB schools will remain open and student transportation will continue as scheduled.

Labour Updates

There are no pending job actions at this time that affect any of our unionized employee groups at HCDSB.

As always, we will share labour negotiation updates with parents and our school communities, as information becomes available. Information will be shared through one or more of the following ways:

- By email to all parents and guardians
- On the HCDSB website - Labour Negotiations page
- On Twitter @HCDSB

We hope this helps to clarify any questions or concerns.