

How can you support a student who has experienced discriminatory language or behaviour?

- Let the person know that you are not okay with the harmful and discriminatory language/behaviour they are displaying.
- Ask the student who experienced the harmful and discriminatory language/behaviour what they need to feel supported.
- Be understanding if they are not ready to talk about it.
- Be understanding if they are not ready to receive an apology from the person engaging in the harmful behaviour.
- Report the incident to a Teacher, Guidance Counsellor, Child and Youth Counsellor, Early Childhood Educator, Social Worker, Educational Assistant, Administrator, Chaplain or any trusted staff member.

“That’s not ok with me!”

"Human dignity originates from God and is of God because we are made in God's own image and likeness." (Gn 1:26-27)

“As a responsible citizen, bystanders have a responsibility to interrupt, respond and report.”
