

594 secondary parents completed the survey

Achieving

Learning Environment

of parents felt that their child's teachers are encouraging, have high expectations, and provide extra help and engaging lessons.

Believing

Home-School-
Parish Connections

82% felt that their child's school nurtured a Catholic school community and encouraged faith-based activities for families.

Belonging

Safety

87% agreed that students feel safe at school.

58% were aware of bullying prevention programs and/or activities at their child's school.

Partnership

86% indicated having positive communication with school staff.

98% reported involvement in their child's school life.

Inclusion

89% indicated that their child enjoys school and feels accepted or heard by peers and staff.